brownmamas.com

Hey! I'd love to work with you! I'm Muffy and I blog at BrownMamas.com, but it's really not the only thing I do. For starters, I'm a full-time, 12 to 12, homeschooling mom and stay-at-home wife. Yup! I'm mommin' for life...lol. I love the City of Pittsburgh (born, raised & reside) am an avid gardener, and run a support group for moms-of-color in the region. We are a community of over 100 online and offline moms who get together monthly to support one-another.
